Susanna Isern Amélie Graux

People called Sophia the Awesome Magician.
She loved waving her magic wand around and turning boring everyday objects into something incredible.

“ABRACADABRA!”

And the water pitcher was suddenly filled with frogs.

“ABRACADABRA!”

And an ostrich egg appeared in the middle of her bedroom.

“ABRACADABRA!”

And all her mother’s plants turned bright blue.

One day her little brother, Hugo, tore a bunch of pages out of her magic spellbook. Sophia was very upset.

“Hugo ruined my magic spellbook!” Sophia shouted.

“Your brother is very little, honey. He doesn’t know what he’s doing. Don’t worry, we’ll fix it,” said her mother.

But Sophia was still upset. Her little brother was constantly messing up her stuff and bothering her all the time. And her mother never even got angry at him!

Then Sophia got an idea...

She snuck up behind her little brother and shook her magic wand.

“Abracadabra!”

Hugo was surrounded by an intense light.
And suddenly, the little boy was transformed into...

A DONKEY!

“HEE HAW! HEE HAW!”

Sophia giggled.
