

Contents

Reframing Our Pedagogical Practice. Teaching Native American/First Nations Literature and Culture through Indigenous-centered Methodologies ANNA MARIA BRÍGIDO-CORACHÁN .....	11
Pedagogies of Language Sovereignty PHILLIP H. ROUND .....	25
Addressing Matters of Concern in Native American Literatures: Place Matters CHRIS LALONDE .....	41
Buffalo Man: Human-Animal Transformations in American Indian Fiction and Its Reception by Polish University Students GABRIELA JELEŃSKA .....	55
An Interdisciplinary Approach to Teaching Pocahontas TERESA GIBERT .....	73
‘With them was my home’: The Politics of Native Space in A Narrative of the Life of Mrs. Mary Jemison ELENA ORTELLS .....	93

Teaching Native American Literature in Argentina MÁRGARA AVERBACH .....	111
Native American Children's Literature in the English Language Education Classroom DOLORES MIRALLES-ALBEROLA .....	127
Indigenizing Afroperipheralism in Wayne Compton's The Outer Harbour VICENT CUCARELLA-RAMON .....	147
Identity (and Other) Lessons: Creative Writing in the Classroom as a Door into the Poetry of Ralph Salisbury INGRID WENDT .....	165